Clerk – Alberta Ridlon:

Alberta Ridlon left a note requesting appointments and reappointments. She also asked about the approval of Special Town Meeting minutes.

SVFD - Corin Meehan:

Corin Meehan reported there were no requests for service during the reporting period.

Training was the mandatory annual BLS occupational health and safety refresher.

All invoices submitted for the period are under the fire association capital funds.

MMA legal services has been preparing the legal counsel verbiage I requested to clarify the concerns regarding the call and training stipends. Attorney Rebecca Beel sent a preliminary via e-mail, and I was going to attach the information from the general legal information that's normally available to MMA members. Unfortunately, due to a lack of internet access on the office computer currently, I was not able to forward those items, or print for viewing at this time. I will access the material from another location and forward my written report to the Board of Selectmen, as well as the Administrative Assistant, reported Corin.

Road Commissioner – Stephen Bennett:

Lori reported that "Bump" signs were put on Black Mountain Road. On Webber Pond Road and Hardscrabble Road, Lori made "Caution Frost Heave Bumps" on each end of the roads.

On Haskell Hill Road, Lori reported the culvert looked blocked, it may be frozen and may need repairing.

Lori said on Route 93 there is a dead broken tree leaning into other trees. She called DOT on Monday and reported that they will go out and look at it.

She also mentioned that a tree came down on Lee Gray Road. It has been removed and caution signs were put up.

Admin. Assistant – Diana Curtis (DJ)

DJ Curtis discussed budget, warrant, winter road comparison and upcoming Town Meeting.

Old Business:

Kim Ashley has asked Lori about Wayne Clay's property. The property in question is owned by the Town due to non-payment of taxes. The Selectmen then discussed other tax related issues.

The Selectmen discussed the Smith & Associates recent bill.
